Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Aram Mattioli

Born on 21 January 1961 in Zurich.

Studied history and philosophy, completed doctorate in 1993 at the University of Basel.

1988/89: employee in the Archives of Contemporary History at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (ETH) in Zurich.

1989–1997: assistant at the Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts.

1996/97: research at Ruprecht-Karls-University in Heidelberg.

1997: post-doctoral lecture qualification.

1999: appointment as professor ordinarius for general and Swiss contemporary history at the University of Lucerne.

2001–2002: Dean of the Faculty of Humanities.

2001–2004. 2006–2008 and 2010–2012: Head of the Department of History at Lucerne.

Member of the advisory board for the magazines "I sentieri della ricerca" and "Aschkenas", and advisory member of the Institute of German Press Research at the University of Bremen, the new Luzerner Kantonsgeschichte state archive and the special commission on "Die Burgergemeinde Bern und ihre Geschichte während des 19. und 20. Jahrhunderts" (The civic community of Bern and its history during the 19th and 20th centuries).